PRICE CODES

Our course information sheets mostly show a 'Price Code'. This code relates to one of the prices shown below.

Please note that the prices quoted do not include VAT, which is charged at the standard rate.

Please read the following notes carefully :

- An 'in house' course is where we deliver the training exclusively for you, either online or at your offices. The price includes all training materials and access to our free aftercare service. For 'on-site' courses, the price does not include delegate refreshments or the provision of a training room – you provide these – and there is an additional fee (normally £175) to contribute towards the consultant's travel and subsistence. The price quoted is for the course, not per delegate!
- An 'open' course is one that we arrange. Delegates may come from a variety of organisations, including the public sector, private sector and delegates who are undertaking training of their own volition. The price includes all training materials and access to our free aftercare service. Most of these are online but, where this is not the case, you are responsible for your own travel, accommodation and subsistence (if appropriate). The price quoted is for each delegate.
- Those courses that form part of a Professional Qualification may be taken with or without PQ registration. If you choose to register for a PQ, you will have to pay a registration fee. These are shown below.
- You will normally be eligible for a discounted price if you work for a Public Body (such as a government department or a local authority) or a charity, in the United Kingdom. Please contact us for further details.
