

Briefing Title	RIPA (Briefing) – RIPA and IPA Review and Update	Duration	Half Day	RIPA Briefings
Aim	This workshop style briefing will ensure that you are up to date with the changes to RIPA and the IPA, and will guide you through a thorough review of current practice. You'll look at currently published (and forthcoming) guidance and case law that affects the authorisation of Directed Surveillance and Covert Human Intelligence Sources (CHIS) in both RIPA and 'non-RIPA' situations. The briefing also examines the potential for 'accidental CHIS or Surveillance Agent', how to handle unsolicited information from identifiable sources and how covertly watching a suspect's online activities may be impacted by RIPA. The course also reviews the current process for obtaining communications data. This briefing is suitable as an update for applicants or authorisers who haven't been trained recently or as an overview for those who need a general awareness of the law.
Prerequisites	None, however those who are to become applicants or authorising officers but have not had prior training or experience should undertake the RIPA – Applications and Authorisations course.
NB : This event can be delivered in Scotland in accordance with RIP(S)A and in Jersey under RIPL.
