

Course Title	Understanding Offences	Duration	One day	LAW
Outcomes	What's the easiest way to lose a case? To choose the wrong offence. Why? Because even legally trained people can get it wrong from time to time. Do you want to know how not to? Of course you do. It happens much more than you might think, and is often down to a lack of understanding of the offence itself. You need to be able to spot the correct offences and decide which is the best to use. You want to ensure that once you select your offences, that you can break them down into parts making it easier to understand them. In addition you'll want to know what the most relevant pieces of case law are and how they effect your prosecutions.
Prerequisites	None
NB : This course forms part of a formal qualification and includes delegate assessment during the course. You will be required to complete some pre-course work prior to attending this event.
Session	Aim	Content
Offences	To have a good understanding of the various offences that are likely to be encountered	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ A history ◆ Common law ◆ Statutes ◆ Delegated legislation ◆ Case law ◆ Inchoate offences
Points to prove	To be able to state the points to prove for various offences	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ Points to prove ◆ Breaking down offences ◆ Fraud Act offences ◆ Theft Act offences ◆ Social Security Administration Act offences ◆ Case law
Selecting offences	To know how to select the most appropriate charge in any given case	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ Theft Act offences ◆ What offence do I use? ◆ How many offences should I use?
Planning	To be able to plan an investigation into the various offences encountered	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ Investigation planners ◆ Translating points to prove to match someone's actions
Book this course now :
Cost	Price Code B
To book this event	Tel : 0330 022 8262 e-mail : bookings@its-training-uk.com			